

December Dinner and Program

Secrets of Master Networkers

Speaker: Ingrid Edstrom

Congratulations! You made it to an event. Now what? Many of us feel awkward in new social situations, particularly where there is pressure to be professional, make a good impression, and produce the results we are hoping for. Networking is a learned skill, not some innate, magical gift reserved for the people you see schmoozing it up at networking events. This interactive workshop will help you discover:

- * Why networking is an important part of every business
- * Your company's unique network strategy
- * Your personal networking personality and strengths
- * Tools to get out of your own way and step forward as a leader
- * Immediate action items to bring the results you want

Ingrid Edstrom is a bookkeeping nerd and CEO of the award-winning bookkeeping firm, Polymath LLC. She was recently recognized as one of the accounting profession's Top 40 Under 40, one of the Most Powerful Women in Accounting, and the 2017 Top "Up-N-Comer" ProAdvisor.
