

Join Women Entrepreneurs Sharing Their Secrets to Success

Speakers: Natasha Hopkins, Lindsay McPhail, and Suzanne Mathis McQueen

This month, three successful women entrepreneurs will share their experiences in starting and managing businesses. They will discuss issues such as how they got started, advice they received, and lessons they've learned from success and failure.

Natasha Hopkins, owner of The Rogue Grape, is an ambassador of Southern Oregon Wines. With a love of local wine and community, her passion can be seen and felt at the polished yet approachable wine bar in the heart of downtown Medford.

In 2011, Lindsay McPhail's family received the gift of a home from ABC's Extreme Makeover Home Edition. Since then she has opened three businesses with family members, most recently, their first specialty coffee drive thru, Outsider Coffee.

Suzanne Mathis McQueen created The Phoenix Day Spa in Ashland in 1996. She sold the business as a turnkey operation with 30 employees in 2003. She is also the author of 4 Seasons in 4 Weeks and specializes in the 29-day female body clock, a natural rhythm that is critical to female balance, joy, and optimal daily experiences
